This workshop is for those with some experience of dancing contact improvisation or who've attended our beginner's workshop on 16 September.

We'll compose a dance for performance on the afternoon of Saturday 23 September. The geometric designs of the Turrill Sculpture Garden in Oxford where we'll perform, guide the composition. We take the painting of Kandinsky (above) as an inspiration with the intention of creating a moving flowing sculpture. Workshop participants also are expected to join the performance. The workshop is free.

Andrew Wood is the Artistic Director and leader of the workshop. Please wear loose clothing and bring a water bottle. For inquires or to reserve a space email contact@contactdance.org
